FROM THE PRESIDENT

President's report for July 2022

Changeover was on Wednesday the 13 July; I feel quite honoured to be able to have the opportunity for another year as Berowra Rotary's President.

I was humbled that PP Peggy Sanders and her committee had organised such a great night. There were 20 in attendance, including PDG Lindsay May OAM and Tania, District Membership Chair John Fenessy, Honorary Rotarian Nola Van Huissteden, Associate Jenna Bakker, members, partners and friends. Sadly Assistant Governor, PP Tom Borg and Yvonne were not able to attend because of COVID.

On the night it was my pleasure to induct a new member, Namrata Kaushal. Welcome Nam.

Then I said thank you to each member of my 2021-2022 Board, as I handed out their Certificate of Appreciation. A special thank you PP Jan Childs, who became a 'Rotary Ann' (as partners were called) in 1977, a member in 1995, and the Club's first female President in 2000-2001. Jan has been involved in this Club for 45 years and put many years of Rotary Before Self.

John and I thank the Club for our very thoughtful gifts.

President's Goals 2022-2023:

- Support DG Mina
- Continuing to support my Board and thank you all for being Directors.
- Support the youth
- Go to all Presidents' meetings
- Grow awareness of the Rotary Club of Berowra
- Grow our Club
- Support others that are disadvantaged
- MOST OF ALL HAVE FUN WHILST DOING IT.

District 9685 Presidents' Meeting was held by Zoom on Saturday 23, July with over 68 attendees. A few points that were mentioned:

Foundation Grants extension 31 July; check WWCC as it has been 5 years: change for bank accounts for Rotary International; possibility of corporate sponsorship (e.g. MEDICARE Private); HEERA now RARE-Rotary Australia Repurposing Equipment; Uluru Statement from the Heart; Our District Directory is going to be continually updated on the website as there is always changes; encourage all members to login to MY ROTARY to widen their experience.

Our first dinner meeting for the new Rotary Year was held on 27 July. with Guest Speaker PP Greg Newling, a member of Ku-ring-gai Rotary, and representing PDG Bruce Lakin. Greg gave a powerpoint presentation of a proposed pilot program for the Regionalisation for 67 Clubs in Zone 8, which includes Australia, New Zealand, and the Pacific Islands. Greg advised us to go to the website <https://creatingtomorrowrotary.org/> to find out more information. The Club will cast it's vote on the Pilot in September.

On the same night, our new member Namrata (Nam) Kaushal gave us a very interesting 'Job Talk' now we know a lot more about her, and happy that Nam is part of our team.

I gave AG Tom Borg his and Yvonne's Certificates of Appreciation, plus his Youth Director 's pin, as they couldn't make the Changeover Dinner.

Thank you, Sivaraj for stepping up as our Community Service Director as he has the Community Markets and Apex Woodchop well in hand, and with Jan the planning for the Fathers Day Spring Plant Sale.

Sorry that I will be away on holidays for the next meeting, stay safe and most of all have FUN.

President Jeanette Bakker

COMMUNITY SERVICE REPORT

Berowra Community Markets: We had a stall at the Community Market on Saturday 6 August. Thanks to Rich and Trevor setting up the gazebo and the tables; and Frank, Peggy, Yvonne and Tom , and Suchada — and to President Jeanette for dropping off the Rocky Road as she waved us goodbye and set off on her holiday!

Next time we will be at the Markets will be Saturday 1 October 2022.

Berowra APEX Woodchop: Berowra Rotary will again take a stall at the Woodchop. Sunday August 28 from 10am—4pm. Warrina Street Oval.
